

Terex Australia holds the health and safety of its employees, subcontractors, customers and visitors as our number one priority and is committed to taking all steps to eliminate and control all work related hazards and risks.

Terex recognizes that it has a primary responsibility to minimise and eliminate the risk of harm or injury to any person from the conduct of its business. It will comply with the provisions of the relevant Occupational Health and Safety Legislation and associated statutory requirements.

Terex has an ongoing commitment to provide and maintain a safe working environment for employees, contractors, clients and public who may be under our supervision or control. Terex is committed to providing resources necessary to achieve this aim and ongoing improvement in its health and safety performance.

Consistent with and in pursuit of these principals:

MANAGEMENT IS COMMITTED TO:

- Setting and reviewing the Terex Health and Safety Policy,
- Through leadership, demonstrate commitment to establishing safe behaviours to make safety personal and accountability to the Safety Management System,
- Providing resources, information, instruction and training necessary to assist our team members, contractors and visitors to maintain a safe and healthy workplace,
- Providing forums for communication and consultation of health and safety,
- Establishing measurable health and safety objectives and targets,
- Providing mechanisms to ensure continuous improvement, and
- Monitoring health and safety performance and reviewing plans, to identify and progress opportunities for improvement.

OUR EMPLOYEES, CONTRACTORS AND VISITORS ARE:

- Expected to meet their obligations to protect the health and safety of themselves and others at work,
- To perform their assigned duties in accordance with accepted safe working practices,
- To provide Terex Management all information necessary to protect the health and safety of all stakeholders, and
- To follow and comply with all safety requirements of the Terex Safety Management System.

The success of this health and safety program ultimately depends on the participation and willingness of all to co-operate and work with a team spirit to achieve our Zero Harm goal – Think Safe, Work Safe, Home Safe.

This policy is an integral part of the Terex Risk Management philosophy and will be reviewed to ensure its ongoing relevance and to confirm the Terex commitment to health and safety.
